

CURRICULUM VITAE

Pedro Luis Rivera, DVM
2555 Wisconsin St.
Sturtevant, WI 53177-1825
262-884-9549
262-886-6460 fax
HOWC@THEHEALINGOASIS.COM
WWW.THEHEALINGOASIS.COM

Educational Background:

- 1998 – Present: Faculty and main instructor at the Healing Oasis Wellness Center, a post-graduate educational institution offering state approved programs as set forth by the Wisconsin Educational Approval Board.
- 2003 – Present: Faculty and main instructor at the Healing Oasis Wellness Center – Ontario Canada and the Academy of Veterinary Chiropractic And Healing Arts in Sittensen, Germany. Post-graduate educational institution offering state approved providing education in Veterinary Spinal Manipulation or “Chiropractic”.
- 2003 – 2005: Faculty at the European Academy of Veterinary Chiropractic
- 1993 – 1999: Full time instructor at the Options for Animals Veterinary Chiropractic Center
- 1986: Received the degree of Doctor of Veterinary Medicine from Purdue University, School of Veterinary Medicine
- 1985: Received a BS in Animal Science from Purdue University

Extra-professional certifications:

- 2002 – Present: Enrolled in the Carrick Institute; Chiropractic Neurology Program and Masters Degree program. A 34 module program for licensed DC’s and MD’s leading to Neurology Diplomat degree
- 1999: Completed a seminar on Veterinary Rehabilitation from the University of Tennessee, School of Veterinary Medicine, Continuing Education program

Page 2. Curriculum Vitae; Dr. Pedro Luis Rivera

- 1993: Successfully completed all requirements for the diplomat status of the American Veterinary Chiropractic Association
- 1992: Successfully completed Level I & II from the New England School of Homeopathy
- 1989: Successfully completed the certificate of completion offered by the American Veterinary Chiropractic Association and Options for Animal Veterinary Chiropractic Center. Course length = 150hrs.

Work:

- 2005 – Present: Co-Founder and primary instructor at the Healing Oasis Wellness Center – Canadian School (Brandtford, Ontario) and the Academy of Veterinary Chiropractic and Healing Arts in Sittense, Germany
- 1998 – Present: Co-Founder & primary instructor at The Healing Oasis Wellness Center, an educational institution offering state approved programs through the Wisconsin Educational Approval Board (WEAB) on Veterinary Massage and Rehabilitation; Veterinary Chinese Herbology and Veterinary Spinal Manipulative Therapy. These programs are offered to licensed health care professionals that meets the rigorous standards set forth by this institution and the WEAB
- 1993 – Present: Co-owner of The Healing Oasis Veterinary Hospital, a 100% Holistic Veterinary Practice devoted to offer Veterinary Massage and Rehabilitation Therapy, Veterinary Chiropractic and Veterinary Chinese & Western Herbology as the primary health care modalities. The hospital also offers conventional diagnostics such as x-rays, ultrasound, blood chemistries, surgery and EKG among others.

Literature:

- 1999: Co-author of “Veterinary Chiropractic” published in the Journal of Veterinary Technician, May 2000
- 1997: Equine Influenza and Equine Herpes Virus titers: Their significance. Unpublished information done with the assistance of Dr. Ed Dubovi at Cornell University.